- Submitting the work of another student as their own.
- Plagiarism (i.e. taking and using as their own, the thoughts and writings of another with the intent to claim the work as their own)
- Consulting with peers throughout formal assessments. Two verbal warnings will be given before cancelling the assessment and the student will be marked NYC.

Further occurrence of academic misconduct will be recorded on the student's file and suspension/ dismissal will be at the discretion of the Chief Executive Officer.

Plagiarism and Cheating

Collusion, plagiarism or cheating in assignments, class assessments or examinations will not be tolerated. Trainer will advise all students of the many different ways to avoid plagiarism. Students who are proven to be involved in such activities will not be permitted to continue their course

Statement of Authorship

All homework assignments, projects, reports, papers and assignments submitted to a course are expected to be the student's own work. Students should always take great care to distinguish their own ideas and knowledge from information derived from sources. The term "sources" includes not only published primary and secondary material, but also information and opinions gained directly from other people.

All information taken from other sources must be clearly referenced and authorship acknowledged.

Any student who, for whatever reason, submits work that is not their own or fails to acknowledge sources, will be required to re-enrol in the relevant subject/s. Every assessment must be accompanied by a student's statement of authorship, which is included on American College's Assessment Validation Checklist at the completion of assessment for each unit.
