AMERICAN COLLEGE

STANDARD 2 - REFUND POLICY

1. Overseas Students

American College Pty Ltd Trading as American College has a fair and equitable refund policy and procedure that is compliant with AQTF and ESOS requirements. This policy is provided to students prior to signing the International Enrolment & Acceptance Form being completed, OR prior to any payment of the course (whichever happens first).

American College acknowledges that Government Legislation requires tuition fees and application fees to be refunded in full if:

- The course does not start of the agreed starting date which is notified in the Offer Letter.
- The course stops being provided after it starts and before it is completed.
- The course is not provided fully to the student because the college has a sanction imposed by a government regulator.
- If the course defaults, refunds will be granted in accordance with the provisions of the ESOS Act 2000 and the ESOS Regulations 2001.

Refunds under the above conditions will be paid in full to the student within 14 days.

American College may arrange for another course, or part of a course, to be provided to students at no (extra) cost to the student as an alternative to refunding course money. Where the student agrees to this arrangement, the College will not be liable to refund the money owed for the original enrolment.

In signing the International Enrolment & Acceptance Form to enrol in a course(s) at the College the Applicant acknowledges:

1. That the information provided by the Applicant in their application is complete and correct.
2. Agrees to be bound by the College rules and regulations and any amendments made to the rules and regulations.
3. Agrees to undertake a testing requirement prior to any course entry, if deemed necessary by the College.
4. Agrees to update the College on any change of contact details as soon as practicable.
5. Agrees to obey DIAC student visa requirements.
6. Agrees to pay all fees required on or by the due date as notified in writing by College or as per the invoice. The College reserves the right to charge a late fee of $100 per week if the student defaults on the agreed payment plan.
7. The College will access these fees in accordance with the procedures established by the State Government and DEEWR.
8. The College reserves the right to accept or reject any application for enrolment at its discretion.

3. Application for refund form

- If a student wishes to withdraw their enrolment, they are required to complete a American College Application for Withdrawal and Refund form and forward it to the Administration Officer. Your application will be processed within 28 days of the application being received.
- The application should arrive at American College prior to course commencement (see Refund Conditions for details of expected refund amounts).
- If the organisation is unable to offer the course, the refund will be processed within 28 days.
- If American College defaults the student is covered by the provisions of the ESOS Act 2000 and the ESOS regulations 2001. Please note this before making payment to American College.

4. Provider default.

In the unlikely event that American College is unable to deliver your course in full, you will be offered a refund of all course monies you have paid to date or alternately, American College will offer you the opportunity of studying in an alternative course at no extra cost to you.

Students may choose preferred option.

Students will be required to sign an agreement outlining preferred options co-signed by the Director.

Should students choose the refund option; the refund will be paid no later than 14 days of the day on which the course ceased being provided.

If American College is unable to provide a refund or place you in an alternative course our Tuition Assurance Scheme (TAS) ACPET – OSTAS will place you in a suitable alternative course at no extra cost to you.

Finally, if the ACPET – OSTAS cannot place you in a suitable alternative course, the ESOS Assurance Fund Manager will attempt to place you in a suitable alternative course or, if this is not possible, you will be eligible for a refund as calculated by the Fund Manager.

5. Student rights

“This agreement, and the availability of complaints and appeals processes, does not remove the right of the student to take action under Australia’s consumer protection laws.”

Agreeing to the Refund policy does not remove the right of the student to take further action under Australia’s consumer protection laws or to pursue other legal remedies. Please see American College’s Complaints /Appeals Policy.

American College Pty Ltd T/A

AMERICAN COLLEGE

The processes in the American College's Complaints/ Appeals policy do not circumscribe the student's right to pursue other legal remedies.

6. Recipient of refund

American College will pay the refund to the person who enters into the International Enrolment & Acceptance Form with the College, unless the person gives a written direction to American College to pay the refund to someone else – (The legislation does not allow the refund to be paid to an agent.)

The refund will be paid in the same currency in which the fees were paid unless this is impractical.

The refund will be paid no later than 28 days after it is lodged with American College.

7. Provision of refund information to students

The refund policy will be given to students in their handbook prior to enrolment (signing of International Enrolment & Acceptance Form) and made accessible on the American College website. It will also be explained at induction and orientation so that it is clearly understood by overseas students.

Course deferment, suspension of studies, or cancellation (Procedure for application for deferment is available in the student handbook)

8. Grounds for deferment / suspension / cancellation of enrolment

American College may grant deferral of commencement of studies or suspension of studies for students who request such a change to their enrolment status on the grounds of compassionate or compelling circumstances. These include but are not limited to:

- a) Serious illness or injury, where a medical certificate states that the student was unable to attend classes;
- b) Bereavement of close family members such as parents or grandparents (where possible, a death certificate should be provided);
- c) Major political upheaval or natural disaster in the home country requiring emergency travel and this has impacted on the student's studies; or
- d) A traumatic experience which could include:
 - involvement in, or witnessing of a serious accident; or
 - witnessing or being the victim of a serious crime, and this has impacted on the student (these cases should be supported by police or psychologists' reports)
- e) Where American College was unable to offer a pre-requisite unit; or
- f) Inability to begin studying on the course commencement date due to delay in receiving a student visa;
